Calling all Farmers Market Managers!

Join us this summer for our Vote for America's Favorite Farmers Markets contest. Together we can strengthen the local farm-to-fork connection and pledge our support for healthy farms, healthy food and healthy communities.

Market managers must enroll their market into the contest in order to participate. Enrollment is easy and free; simply go to www.farmland.org/marketmanager. Over the summer American Farmland Trust will be promoting farmers markets to local food enthusiasts in your community and beyond.

Votes will open to customers in June at:
